During probation, all direct recruitment & promotee officers appointed to the post of Senior Scientific Officer Grade-II, it is mandatory to undergo induction training before posting as specified by the controlling authority in accordance with rule 11(5) at DIQA/ designated center for training as issued from time to time. Successful completion of the training is a prerequisite for completion of probation.

(3) Provided that the appointing authority may extend the period of probation in accordance with the instructions issued by the Government from time to time: Provided further that any decision for extension of the probation period shall be taken ordinarily within a period of eight weeks after expiry of the previous probationary period and communicated in writing to the concerned officer together with the reasons for so doing within the said period of eight weeks.

(4) On completion of the probation or any extension thereof, officers shall, if considered fit, be confirmed in the grade, if not confirmed in the entry grade and the composition of the Departmental Promotion Committee to consider confirmation in accordance with Schedule II.

(5) If during the period of probation, or any extension thereof, as the case may be, the Government is of the opinion that an officer is not fit for permanent appointment, it may discharge or revert the officer to the post held by him prior to his appointment in the service, as the case may be.

(6) For any other matters relating to probation, the members of the service shall be governed by the instructions issued by the Government in this regard from time to time.

10. Controlling Authority. - The Ministry of Defence (Department of Defence Production), Government of India shall be the Controlling Authority of the service and shall be responsible for the deployment of the officers of the service to the best advantage of the Government.

11. Posting and liability to serve Defence services or posts connected with Defence. - (1) Officers appointed to the service shall be liable to serve anywhere in India or abroad.

(2) Officers, if deputed, shall be liable to serve in any other Ministry or Department of the Government of India or Corporations and industrial undertakings of the Government.

(3) Any officer appointed to the service, if so required, shall be liable to serve as a commissioned officer in Armed Forces for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any:
Provided that such officer-

(a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of appointment to the service or from the date of his joining prior to the initial constitution of the service; and

(b) Shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid, if he has attained the age of forty years.

(4) Officers appointed to the service shall be liable to field service (including service on land or travel by service aircraft or naval ships, etcetera) in respect of investigation, development, indigenization and quality assurance work or such other work to which they may be deputed.

(5) Officers appointed to the service shall be liable to undergo such training and be detailed on courses of instruction in India or abroad as the competent authority may decide from time to time, and an officer detailed for training or course, the duration of which is six months or more or an officer detailed for training outside India or with private firms or factories in India, irrespective of the duration of the training, shall be liable to refund in full the cost of training if, for any reasons, during the training or within a period of three years after the completion of such training, he chooses to discontinue his service.

12. Other conditions of service:- (1) The conditions of service of the members of the service in respect of matters not expressly provided for in these rules shall, mutatis mutandis and subject to any special orders issued by the Government in respect of service, be the same as applicable to officers (civilians) of corresponding status in similar scientific institutions or organisations under the Government of India.

(2) In the matter of retirement, the officers of the service shall be governed by rule 56 of the Fundamental Rules.

(3) In the matter of conduct and discipline, officers of the service shall be governed by the Central Civil Service (Conduct) Rules, 1964, and the Central Civil Service (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965, as amended from time to time.

(4) Medical standard of fitness for officers of the service shall normally be the same as for scientists and technologists serving in other similar scientific organisations under the Government: provided that in special cases, the Ministry of Defence (Department of Defence Production), Government of India shall, in consultation with the Director General of Health Service, be competent to grant relaxations.

(5) Officers selected for assignments involving limited field service shall undergo special medical checkup, as may be specified either at the time of selection or when they proceed on field service, as the case may be.

13. Non-functional upgradation (NFU). - (1) Whenever any Indian Administrative Service officer of the State or Joint Cadre is posted at the Centre to a particular grade in Level 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 in the Pay Matrix, the officers belonging to batches of the DQAS Service that are senior by two years or more and have not so far been promoted to that particular grade, would be granted the same grade on non-functional basis from the date of posting of the Indian Administrative Service officers in that particular grade at the Centre on the recommendations of the Departmental Screening Committee constituted in accordance with Schedule-IV.

(2) Higher scale under Non Functional Upgradation would be granted wherever due and admissible and it would be governed by the following terms and conditions amended from time to time.

(i) The upgradation granted will be purely non-functional upgradation, personal to the officer and it would not bestow any right to the officer to claim promotion or deputation benefits based on non-functional upgradation in such manner.

(ii) All the prescribed eligibility criteria and promotional norms including 'benchmark' for up-gradation to a particular Level in the Pay Matrix would have to be met at the time of screening for grant of higher pay scale.

(3) The other terms and conditions for grant of higher pay scale on Non-functional basis shall be as per orders and instructions issued on the matter by the Central Government from time to time.

14. Disqualification. - No person-

(a) Who has entered into or contracted a marriage with a person having a spouse living; or

(b) Who, having a spouse living, has entered into or contracted a marriage with any person, shall be eligible for appointment to the service:

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such person and the other party to the marriage and that are other grounds for so doing, exempt any person from operation of this rule.

15. Residuary matters. - In regard to matters not specifically covered by these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the rules, regulations and orders applicable to the Central Civil Services in general.

16. Power to relax. - Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category or persons or posts.

17. Saving. - Nothing in these rules shall affect reservation, relaxation of age-limit and other concessions required to be provided for the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, Ex-servicemen and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time in this regard.

18. Interpretation. -If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, the same shall be decided by the Government.
